A Few Points from the Principal

- Looking for a fun and healthy activity to benefit a great cause, please see p. 3 and 4 of the newsletter that contains information on the WRG Memorial Scholarship Fun Run/Walk that benefits students right here in Kirtland.
- Interested in a fun and engaging after school engineering program for your child? See p. 10 for information on how to register for the "Nuts and Bolts" mechanical engineering program at KES.
- Volunteers are welcome and appreciated at KES. Please remember you must be fingerprinted to volunteer for school activities including field trips. If you have not been printed and want to, let you child's teacher know asap and he or she will get it set up. Fingerprinting validation is good for 5 years.
- Every Friday is Spirit Day at KES. Students are encouraged to wear Hornet apparel and/or blue and gold.
- The Kirtland Education Foundation will have its annual golf outing on Saturday, September 1st. Please consider golfing or sponsoring a hole for this event that directly helps our school. (see page 4 for more details)
- If you shop at Heinen's, please go to <http://www.heinensrewards.com/secure/home.aspx> to register Kirtland Elementary for rewards. This must be done every school year. Please see p. 9 for other places to register and help KES.
- Nice article on the importance of sleep for children: <http://www.morningjournal.com/general-news/20180821/childrens-sleep-patterns-could-affect-school-performance>
- Getting a book for purchasing a Kellogg's product: https://www.kelloggsfamilyrewards.com/en_US/promotions/feeding-reading.html

CHILD FIND

Getting Started

Kirtland Local Schools is responsible for identifying, locating and evaluating any child, birth to age 21, with a suspected disability who resides within the Kirtland School District, or who attends a private school located within the district boundaries. This process is provided at no cost to the family. Special Education and related services are available to children who are identified as being “a child with a disability” according to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEIA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. There are thirteen categories of disabilities under IDEIA: Autism, Cognitive Disability, Deaf-blindness, Deafness, Emotional Disturbance, Hearing Impairment, Multiple Disabilities, Orthopedic Impairment, Other Health Impaired, Specific Learning Disability, Speech or Language Impairment, Traumatic Brain Injury and Visual Impairment. Parents, relatives, public and private agency employees, childcare providers, physicians and concerned citizens are encouraged to help school districts find any child, birth-21, who may have a disability and are in need of special education and related services. If you know of a child who resides within the Kirtland School District or attends a private school located within the district boundaries, and who is suspected of having a disability, please contact the following:

Birth to Three Years of Age: For services for children under three years of age, please contact Help Me Grow at 440-350-2433. The central intake coordinator is Jennifer Tallian. There are many developmental milestone checklists available online. Three that may be helpful to you are: www.nidcd.nih.gov/health/speechandlanguage, www.HealthyChildren.org, and <http://www.ohiohelpmegrow.org/parents/parentsrights.aspx>.

Preschool Children: If you are aware of a preschooler from 3 through 5 years of age, who has, or may have, a disability, please call the school psychologist, Ms. Marina Ergun, at Kirtland Local Schools. Ms. Ergun may be reached at 440-256-3311 (x3005) or at Marina.Ergun@kirtlandschools.org. During the summer months, you may contact the Kirtland Board of Education at 440-256-3311 (x1000). See the above web sites for milestone information.

School age children: If you have a child already enrolled in the Kirtland Local School district who may be in need of special education services, please call the school psychologist, Ms. Ergun, directly as indicated above. You may also share your concern with your child's teacher, counselor, or principal. There are many online resources that look at milestones for children in elementary through high school years. One that may be helpful is: www.med.umich.edu/yourchild/topics.

Transfer students: If your child is transferring into the Kirtland Local Schools and has received special education services from your previous district, please report this information to the Board of Education or building secretary at the time of registration/enrollment. It would be helpful if you provide copies of your child's current Evaluation Team Report (ETR) and Individualized Education Plan (IEP) at the time of registration.

Students in private schools: If your child attends a private school within the district boundaries (Example, Peaceful Children Montessori or Willoughby Christian) and you suspect a disability, please contact the building principal at that school who will then initiate the identification process with our district. You may also contact our school psychologist, Ms. Ergun, at 440-256-3311 (x3005).

Special Education Department: For general questions or concerns about Child Find or district special education services, please feel free to contact Mrs. Becky Rowell-Malinas, the Director of Pupil Services, at 440-256-3311 (x1008) or at becky.malinas@kirtlandschools.org.

News from the Clinic

We will start our routine screenings for vision and hearing in Sept. and Oct. for students in K and grade 1 (and new students to the district). We will do screenings in grades 3 and 5 in November. If they fail the routine test we have to recheck them within a few weeks. Parents are then sent a referral if they fail again.

As always, please feel free to contact us if you have a concern. We can check them any-time.

Congratulations to our amazing Kirtland PTA for one of only eight schools in Ohio to earn The National PTA School of Excellence Award! Thank you for all that you do to support our students, staff and parents in Kirtland.

Here is a link that describes the award: <https://www.pta.org/home/programs/National-PTA-School-of-Excellence> .

Here is the list of national award winners: <https://www.pta.org/docs/default-source/files/programs/school-of-excellence/2018/2018-2020-national-pta-schools-of-excellence-roster.pdf> .

“Bee” in the know – Join the Kirtland PTA!

The Kirtland PTA is an organization devoted to the educational success of children. The Kirtland PTA is a district-wide PTA, serving all three schools: Kirtland Elementary, Kirtland Middle, and Kirtland High School. The National PTA has awarded the Kirtland PTA the designation of PTA School of Excellence for the second consecutive term (2018-2020).

Here is just a snapshot of how the PTA serves all children of the district throughout the school year:

How is the PTA involved at KES? The PTA sponsors...

- Ice Cream Social
- Scholastic Book Fair
- Mother/Son Bowling
- Teacher/Staff Appreciation Week
- Family BINGO Night
- Princess Prom (Father/Daughter Dance)
- Heart Healthy Day
- And much more!

How is the PTA involved at KMS? The PTA...

- Sponsors all KMS dances.
- Provides locks for incoming 6th grade students.
- Donates money towards field trips, programming, and camps when needed.
- And much more throughout the school year as needs arise!

How is the PTA involved at KHS? The PTA...

- Sponsors $5,000 in Scholarships for KHS Seniors.
- Makes a monetary donation towards KHS After-Prom.
- Donates towards field trips, teams, and programming when needed.
- And much more throughout the school year as needs arise!

Join PTA by going to the link below by September 15th:

<https://my.cheddarup.com/c/kirtland-pta-membership-dues-2018>

An Elementary School family membership is $15.00, which includes a KES Directory. A Middle School or High School membership is $10.00. Memberships must be renewed at the beginning of each school year.

For more information, including a listing of all PTA meetings and events for 2018-19, please go to: www.kirtlandschools.org and click on the Parents tab, then click on PTA. Join us for our first PTA meeting of the school year Tuesday, Sept. 11th at 7 p.m. in KES Hornet Hall.

Tips for Reading Success

Beginning Edition

Kirtland Elementary School
Mr. Chad Vanarnhem, Principal

Book Picks

Read-aloud favorites

■ Biblioburro: A True Story from Colombia (Jeanette Winter)

What if the library came to your neighborhood on the back of a donkey?

This is the true story of a Colombian school-teacher's traveling library that brought books to children in remote villages. (Also available in Spanish.)

■ Dragons Love Tacos (Adam Rubin)

When a little boy discovers that dragons like to eat tacos, he decides to host a taco party for them. But if a fire-breathing dragon accidentally gets a bite of spicy salsa, look out! A silly story about a dragon party that turns into a disaster.

■ Just a Second (Steve Jenkins)

In just a single second, a bumblebee flaps its wings 100 times and the earth travels $18\frac{1}{2}$ miles. This nonfiction book will help your child think about time in fascinating ways. She'll also discover different methods of measuring time.

■ Bedtime Is Canceled (Cece Meng)

Maggie and her brother write their parents an official-looking note: "Bedtime is canceled." Somehow, the note blows out the window, lands in a newspaper office, and ends up in a headline. Soon, bedtime really is canceled, and exhausted children quickly discover the importance of sleep.

Time for a story

Want to spend time with your youngster, build her reading skills, and help her learn to love books? You can do all three when you read aloud. Here are suggestions.

Read regularly

Try to read to your child every day. You might aim for 10–15 minutes of bedtime reading for a peaceful end to the day. Bring along a book, and read to her during a sibling's sports practice. Or curl up together with a book when you get home from work.

the story and look at the illustrations. She'll enjoy read-aloud time more if she plays an active role.

Take turns choosing books

Your youngster may want to hear old favorites again and again. Use your turn for new titles and variety, such as nonfiction or poetry.

Let her participate

Ask your child to turn the pages while you read. Also, she can finish sentences that rhyme or fill in words she knows. Go slowly so she has time to understand

Be playful

You can use different voices for different characters (a high, squeaky voice for a mouse or a deep, booming voice for a horse). Or substitute your youngster's name for the main character's name, and use family members' names for other characters.

Note: You don't have to be an expert reader—you child will love it when you read aloud because it's you. ♥

Writing that makes sense

As your child first learns to write, his stories may not always make sense to others. Help his writing flow logically with these two ideas.

1. Even if your youngster isn't writing sentences yet, he can tell you stories. As he describes the new class pet or something funny that happened at lunch, you can jot down his tale. He'll practice relating events in a logical order, and that can help when he puts his thoughts and ideas down on paper himself.

2. Let your child read his stories to you. Ask questions to encourage him to add information ("What did you do with your friends at recess?") or to clear up a confusing part ("Who said, 'Let's go home'—you or your brother?"). ♥

Spot the details

What is an archaeologist? What do bears eat? Nonfiction books have the answers—and if your child reads carefully, he will find them. The following suggestions can help him read for details and boost his comprehension.

Read around the text. The pages of many nonfiction books are covered with “extras” that stories don’t have (headings, photo captions, an index, a glossary). Point out these features. Then, ask your youngster what questions he has about the topic that the book might answer. Say he’s reading Archaeologists Dig for Clues by Kate Duke. He might think, “What tools do archaeologists use?” or “What are fossils?” Help him read the book, and see how many answers he can find.

Pair fiction with nonfiction.

Together, read a story like Goldilocks and the Three Bears (James Marshall) followed by a nonfiction book such as Bears (Deborah Hodge). As you read the second book, encourage your child to look for ways that real bears are different from the fictional ones. For example, he might say that real bears eat things like grass, berries, fish, and insects, while the three bears eat porridge.♥

Fun with Words Wonderful wordplay

Use these activities to build your child’s phonemic awareness—her ability to hear sounds in words:

- Choose a three-letter word, such as cap. Have your youngster substitute different beginning sounds from the alphabet to make new words (lap, map, nap, rap, sap, tap, zap). How many can she think of?

- Pick a long word, and tell her to clap once as she says each syllable. For mozzarella, she would clap four times: moz-za-rel-la.

- Ask your child to say a word without the first sound. Example: “Can you say sit without the s?” (Answer: It)

- Think of a word, and give your youngster a “sound” clue to figure it out. For instance, “I’m thinking of a word for something that you chew but don’t swallow. The word has an uh sound in the middle.” (Answer: Gum)♥

Vocabulary boosters

A large vocabulary can turn your child into a better reader and writer. Try these everyday ways to help her learn new words.

Keep your ears open

When you and your youngster go places, point out words that people use. Maybe a waiter describes an entree or the dentist talks about molars. Encourage your child to figure out what the words mean by the way they’re used.

Go beyond nouns

Help your youngster add adjectives and verbs to her vocabulary. Sports and games offer opportunities to use action words. Let your child hear you comment on the softball that soars or the runner who sprints. When she sends thank-you notes or greeting cards, suggest descriptive words (a polka-dotted shirt, a fantastic birthday).♥

Parent to Parent A journal-writing tradition

My grandson Keith saw me writing in my journal and asked what I was doing. I explained that my grandfather got me started writing in a journal when I was a little boy. Keith said he wanted to start a journal, too, so I gave him a notebook.

He asked me what he should write about. I told him that I use my journal mostly to store memories, but he can do whatever he wants—even draw pictures. He decided to sketch the two of us writing together in our journals, and he had me help him write a sentence about his picture.

Keith has stuck with his journal for a couple of weeks already. Now when he comes to my house, he can’t wait to share what he has written and drawn.♥
