SUMMER READING

The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak will be used as a pre-assessment to help me gauge your writing skills and reading comprehension. We will complete a timed piece (written essay) in class during the first week of school. This assignment will be used as an informative benchmark.

The book of your choice requires you to complete ONE creative task from the menu below.

The task is due in the first full week of school.

*If you have any questions, please email me at jennifer.berry@kirtlandschools.org

Resume	Create a Playlist	Board Game
Create a resume for two main characters in your story. Research resume components and write as though you are that character.	Build a Soundtrack for your book. Include 10 Songs with a brief summary for each as to why you selected each song.	Create a board game based on your book. Include clear instructions and the actual game.
Gif Story	Character Gallery	Metaphorical Fashion
Create a gif series telling the plot of your story. Include a reflection discussing your gifs and how they link to the story.	Create an artistic representation of one of the main characters. Include elements of their personality, physicality, values, beliefs, goals, or fears. Include a reflection discussing your piece.	Design a line of clothing based on the themes or concepts presented in your stories (6 items). Designs should follow a similar style and idea. Include a reflection discussing your pieces.
Short Film	Blackout Poetry	Metaphorical Architecture
Create a short film bringing the short story to life. Include a reflection discussing your piece. You may work with a partner for this assignment.	Take a page from your book and turn it into a blackout poem. Include a reflection discussing your poem and how it symbolizes life and the culture of this place.	Design and build the stage and set for a production of your story. Include a reflection discussing your piece.
