

Our Monitor & Fix Up Song

(Tune: The Addams' Family Theme Song)

I think I'm confused.
That didn't make sense.
But I know what to do
I'll fix it right up!

When I monitor my reading
I'm always, always thinking.
If it doesn't make sense,
I'll fix it right up!

Our Voracious Reading (For Fluency) Song

(Tune: Baby Bumblebee)

I'm reading lots of books
just-right for me.
That'll help improve my reading fluency.
I'm reading lots of books
just-right for me
that's called voraciously!

Our Check for Understanding Song

(Tune: Hokey Pokey)

You have a great new book and you've started to read
You know a lot of words but there's something else you need.
You must check for understanding and ask "Who?" and also "What?"
that's what reading's all about!

Our Back Up and Reread Song

(Tune: B-I-N-G-O)

I read a bit and now I found I really just don't get it.
Now what should I do?
Now what should I do?
Now what I should I do?
I'll back up and reread it!

Our Cross-Checking Song

(Tune: Do Your Ears Hang Low)

I am stuck on a word
but I know just what to do
I will look at the letters and then at the picture, too.
Does the word that I think it is make a lot of sense?
This is called cross-check!

Tune into Interesting Words

(Tune: Zip-a-dee-doo-dah)

Words are so fun and words are so cool.
They're in books at my home and my school.
I'll find new ones and use them
when I speak and I write Learning new words is such a delight!

Choose Good-Fit Books

(Tune: Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes)

I've picked a good-fit book,
good-fit book.
I've picked a good-fit book,
good-fit book ohh
I can read the words
and the story makes sense, too.
I've picked a good-fit book,
good-fit book.
